Synopsis

As Christians we have an eternal hope, and it is the focus of many beautiful, touching hymns. The stories behind these hymns can be just as moving as the lyrics themselves. In this new gift book, four renowned Christians present inspirational thoughts and histories of 12 beloved hymns, exploring the biblical framework of each and suggesting how those truths can be applied to our daily lives. This beautifully produced book comes with a musical CD of all 12 hymns being performed—some in simple fashion by the authors, and other complemented by full orchestra and choir. Customer Reviews

This book is written to make the richness of the old hymns more accessible. The CD alone is worth the purchase. They mix solos and chorus so you can hear the words but still get the traditional feel. This works really well.

I recommend this series for anyone who loves the old hymns and wants to know about their backgrounds and composers. They increase your precision for the words and Bible verses used or referenced.

Love these stories, words, and the CD.

I am a secret hymn listener! Yes, new music is important, but the Golden Age of Hymns will never be out of style for content, melody and 4-part harmony

Light reading. Not the depth I was looking for.
